Emmitt Smith is a former college and professional American football running back who became the National Football League's (NFL) all-time leading rusher in 2002. He rushed for 18,355 yards during his fifteen seasons from 1990 to 2004 and also holds the record for most career rushing touchdowns with 164. Smith's many other accolades include being a 3x Super Bowl Champion (XXVII, XXVIII, XXX), Super Bowl MVP (XXVIII), an 8x Pro Bowler (1990–1995, 1998, 1999), the AP NFL Most Valuable Player (1993) and the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year (1990). Emmitt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2010 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006. Most recently, he was selected to the NFL 100 All-Time Team. Beyond the game, Smith is a respected entrepreneur, sought-after speaker, best-selling author and one of the most valuable personal brands in the sports-entertainment field. With the mantra, "Building Bridges to Open Doors," Smith has created many successful ventures in the real estate, construction, and technology sectors. Smith is most widely known for his time with the Dallas Cowboys and his winning appearance on "Dancing With the Stars." His latest venture is with Notable Live as a Co-Founder and host of his own "LIVE! with Emmitt Smith!" Notable Events.
